

The Johns Hopkins University

Baltimore, Maryland

Nov. 6th, 1939

Dear Nelson,

Enclosed is your check for $100.00 in payment of your Hopkins honorarium. A little additional loss unexpectedly came in since Friday, and I shall try to arrange for another check, since I don't want to return the money!

Your lectures here were most successful, in spite of the mistake in making arrangements Thursday evening. We can safely say that your visit was a great success. I hope that the contacts and acquaintances which you made will prove of direct value for your future excavations. When you need something for Kheleifch or for another site you can write me and I will do my best, with the aid of your old and new friends in Baltimore.

With best wishes from Ruth and to Helen, I am

Very cordially yours,

W. T. Albright