

July 4, 1939.

July 4th service at St. George's Cathedral. Mr. Alva L. Miller made a brief address. Canon Bridgeman took the service, & the lesson was read by Wadsworth.

I left Haifa at 2 P.M. yesterday. at about 5 P.M. a bomb exploded, & a curfew was imposed on the town.

July 5. I took Rev. Sadler & Mr. Madecaris to the Rotary Club today. Had garage & pottery shed cleaned. Enough dishes, etc. left to furnish several expeditions.

July 9. Henschel began working.

July 12. Lady Patricia left this morning for Cyprus. That leaves Sir Eldred, Miss Wambold, and myself here.

July 14. I was on my ear last night. Mayorie Elffle phoned me last night, after I was already asleep, and asked me where Harry was. I had driven him around to Cook's & the Chief Secretary's, and had brought him back to the hospital. at about 11 P.M. The hospital phone Mayorie to tell her he hadn't returned since he left with me. We were frantic. Finally at 12:30 A.M. he casually returned to the hospital, having gone to the movie with some one.

July 17. Packing Kh. Tammur antiquities. A Jewish boy who came to the library today says he was threatened in front of our door.

July 18. Packing Kh. Tammur antiquities.

July 19. Dr. Monroe & Dr. Sandy of California have been staying here. Pierre Gabriel, American Judge of the Mixed Tribunals of Egypt (retired) called yesterday. Had tea with Dr. Van Ess & his wife, who have taken the Stewart's house next door.

July 20. American pastor & his son, also a pastor, both belonging to disciples of Christ, kidnapped while returning from Mar Saba.

July 20. Lectured at Newman School of Missions.