

July 6, 1938
Curfew still continuing. The condition has deteriorated to the worst stage of the 1936 riots.

July 12. Curfew still in force from 7 P.M. to 5 A.M.
The political conditions have degenerated greatly during the last month, and are about as bad as they were in 1936.
I took Sally, Pease & Janice yesterday. They are leaving for Tel Aviv today. Eleanor is remaining with us. Her pupil, Miss Fatma Hussaini visited her yesterday. She lives with her grandmother, Mrs. Kazim Pasha Hussaini.
The new hot-water system was tried out yesterday, and works. It is attached to the central heating system, & in winter-time will cost nothing extra to furnish hot water.

Prof. Toyozo W. Nakarai of the College of Religion of Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind. sent a letter of introduction for Mr. Vachel G. Gilbert, brought personally. He came to see me yesterday.

When writing Annual report, mention opening of Museum, establishment of Folk Museum in quarters formerly occupied by Museum.

Mention marriage of Nicholas & Eleanor Graham in July 1938

F. W. Winnitt: Allah Before Islam, Vol. XXVIII:3, July 1938

July 15. Thimble here for lunch.

July 17. Eleanor Bisbee invited Fatima Hussaini for lunch today.

July 18. Curfew still in force from 7 P.M. on.
Curfew from 9 P.M. tonight.

Mention personal regret at deaths of Warburg and Patten, Starbuck, Yellin, and

July 20. Wheaton College group phoned at last minute that they would arrive Friday noon.

July 22. The Wheaton College group, 21 strong, arrived this noon. Mr. & Mrs. and Miss Friedl also stayed here for lunch.

July 20. Letter to Wheaton College Group