

July 29. Wheaton College group left this morning for Egypt, some what sooner than they had expected. It was a nice group. I gave three lectures, and Sir Flinders one lecture.

Père Vincent was ~~here~~ this afternoon. He examined the pottery, and felt that it could be dated from about the twelfth to the seventh century B.C., which is in agreement with what Fisher and I had independently agreed.

July 31 Mrs. Vost. Mr. & Mrs. Aldwater, Mr. & Mrs. Guy here for tea.
Aug. 2. For T.I. with Wainwright & Yllos.

Aug. 6. Returned last night, having been called back from T.I. because of Helen's illness.

Aug. 9. Miss Rosenthal left on her vacation.

Aug. 14. Mme. Kazam Pasha Hussaini, her daughter, & granddaughter, Fatima Hussaini were here for lunch.

Aug. 18. Lectured at Yunnan School of Medicine.

Aug. 20. Left for Transjordan. Hamilton appointed ~~Director~~ Director of Antiquities; had been Acting Director since Richmond retired.

Aug. 27. Returned from Transjordan. - Helen in bed again.

Aug. 29. A new stand. The Arabs are making ~~everybody~~ ^{all Arabs} wear Kafis and Agals, in order to confuse the police, who could partly recognize T.I. or other Arabs by non-Tarbusch, etc., headgear.

Sept. 2. Harry Eliffe came to stay with us, arriving for dinner in the evening. Maryjoni & their son David have gone to Cyprus for a month's stay. I was to have flown to Rome today en-route to Brussels, but had to cancel my trip because of Helen's illness.

Sept. 5. Instead of being in Brussels today as I had planned, I found myself in Jerusalem. Picked up Sheikh Mahmud David Ansari this morning. He had been shot through the neck. I brought him to the Government Hospital.

Sept. 7. Went to Rotary meeting.
Played tennis with Keith-Roch & Larsons.

Sept. 9. We have a man from Madis, calling up all the cracks in the floors & sides of the doors &
