

Jan. 8, 1939.

Magnes called troops to keep Husseinis and Kachakalibis from flying at each other's throats.

Jan. 9, 1939

Curfew in Musara this afternoon and tonight. Soldiers rang again this evening at 9:00 P.M., and wanted to search our garden. The officer asked if this was a place for boys and girls.

Prof. Latourette arrived this noon. I drove him around town, took him up to the University stadium, + to the Y.M.C.A. I saw shot in Musara today, but reason for curfew seems to be the one mentioned above.

Jan. 14, 1938. ^{K.S. (Kamath Scott)} Prof. Latourette left after 2½ days. I showed him around town, took him to the Museum, University Stadium, + Bethlehem.

Curfew still on in this area. British patrols out every night.

Police yesterday examined + arrested some of the ^{only} school youths who foraged in the field behind our place. It seems that 16 + 17 yr. olds have been engaged in bomb-throwing, etc. - they are not subject to the death penalty.

Some landlets from near Helvon hung this morning. Strike declared in Old City, O.C. said if shops weren't opened there would be curfew, which has now been imposed. Cannot find to announce it.

School children in play field back of us destructive of our property.

Jan. 19. Mailed Ms. ~~to~~ of Explorations III to Bureau, + copy to Albright + Mrs. Kaplan here to see. Yesterday, attended meeting of Board of Governors of Newman School of Missions.