

- Jan. 3, 1938. Miss Frances J. Olett, registered for remainder of course of lectures.
 Dr. Braver called; Dr. Suberik called.
- Jan. 4, 1938. Sixty-five fruit and evergreen trees being planted in back garden.
 M. Schlumberger called again.
- X Jan. 5, 1938. Palestine Oriental Society Meeting at Dominicans.
 Dr. Meisler lectured on Sheikh Ibraiq.
- ✓ Jan. 10. Lectures began again. I lectured on early history of Kh. Tannur.
 Mr. Michael M. Rix, University College, Oxford, anthropologist working in Cyprus, has come to stay with us for a few days.
- ✓ Jan. 11. Formal opening of Museum scheduled, but called off because of Starkey's assassination.
 Starkey shot dead yesterday afternoon at 5 P.M. on Beit-Jalrin - Helron road while on his way to Jerusalem to Iliffe's for dinner. He was to attend the picnic today.
 The School sent a wreath, + Fisher, + Helen + I sent personal wreaths.
 Lord called up from Megiddo + asked me to send a wreath for the Megiddo expedition, which I have done.
- ✓ Jan. 12. Suberik lectured on ^{Ancient} Synagogues to my class.
- X Jan. 13. Palestine Archaeological Museum officially opened. For fun, I purchased the first ticket.
- ✓ Jan. 14. We had a good rain last night. Country suffering from drought.
- X Jan. 15. Sir Filander + Lady Petie left with Elias for Tell Ajul. Mackay left by train for Gaza + then Ajul.
- Jan. 17. Steinbeck read a paper on "Unfinished Miracles".
 ✓ Gave a dinner party for Gordon Lord. Wadsworth + Adles were present.
- X Jan. 25. Sir Lord Stein called.
 Dinner at H.E.
- X Jan. 26. P.O.S. met here. Presidential Address by ^{Bo} ~~Pere Courroyer~~ ^{O.P.}; N.G. on Nabataean Syria and Nabataean T.J. St. Stephan on ~~Arabic terms, Sheekh almag, etc.~~
 Palestinian Saints and Sanctuaries with Nicknames.
- Jan. 28. Leaving for Alexandria.
- Feb. 5. Returned from Egypt with Mother + Dad
- X Feb. 8. ² am member of Board of Trustees of N. S. M. + J.P.O.S. Dr. + Mrs. Davis of Drew Seminary here.
 Kirkman here for several days.