

July 6, 1938
Curfew still continuing. The condition has deteriorated to the worst stage of the 1936 riots.

July 12. Curfew still in force from 7 P.M. to 5 A.M.
The political conditions have degenerated greatly during the last month, and are about as bad as they were in 1936.
I took Sally & Pease to Jeddah yesterday. They are leaving for Tel Aviv today. Eleanor is remaining with us. Her pupil, Miss Fatima Hussaini visited her yesterday. She lives with her grandmother, Mrs. Kazam Pasha Hussaini.
The new hot-water system was tried out yesterday, and works. It is attached to the central heating system, & in winter-time will cost nothing extra to furnish hot water.

Prof. Toyozo W. Nakarai of the College of Religion of Butcher University, Indianapolis, Ind. sent a letter of introduction for Mr. Vechel J. Gilbert, brought personally. He came to see me yesterday.

When writing Annual report, mention opening of Museum, establishment of Folk Museum in quarters formerly occupied by Museum.

Mention marriage of Nicholas & Eleanor Graham in July 1938

F. W. Whitt: Allah Before Islam, Vol. XXVIII:3, July 1938

July 15. Thirrell here for lunch.

July 17. Eleanor Bieber invited Fatima Hussaini for lunch today.

July 18
Curfew still in force from 7 P.M. on.
Curfew from 9 P.M. tonight.

Mention personal regret at deaths of Warburg and Patten, Starbuck, Yellin, and

July 20. Wheaton College group phoned at last minute that they would arrive Friday noon.

July 22. The Wheaton College group, 21 strong, arrived this noon. Mr. & Mrs. and Miss Fried also stayed here for lunch.

July 20. Sent to Wheaton College Group