Dear Glueck:

In your letter of the 8th you named several men to whom you would like to have the Annual sent. Six of the names you give are on the mailing list here; those who are not are Major Kirkbride, Major Jarvis and Dr. Canaan. I presume you will send copies to these three yourself.

I have not yet heard from Dr. Morgenstern concerning the interview he had with Mr. Warburg last week. When I do, it might be possible to discuss further the budget for next year. While we cannot make out anything like a final budget as yet, I think it would be well to formulate as definitely as we can the possibilities before us. Just now it seems to me that the best thing we can do is to give up the idea of counting Mr. Warburg's gift toward the endowment, and instead use it for the Director's salary for the next ten years. If we can get the Rockefeller Foundation to do as Mr. Appleget suggested, namely, to grant us for current expenses $50000 out of the remaining $200000 set aside, we can use $10000 a year for the next five years. With Mr. Warburg's $5000 and the $10000 regular income, this would make $25000 a year for the next five years. That would give us a budget not too much smaller than this year's budget to be within the bounds of possibility. Of course, within those five years we should have to raise a good deal more money in order to continue beyond that time. Have you any better ideas?

Sincerely,

Dr. Nelson Glueck
